Jamie,

You can say we have always been known as the inseperable two-some... through good times that made us laugh, to bad times that made us cry. It is so hard for me to believe that we have been best friends for over seven years. We have seen so many friendships come and go, but ours will last forever. Don't worry. One day the perfect man will find you. I wish you the best of luck in the future. Just remember we'll always be bosom buddies ... cute picture huh?

P.S. Best Friends
Always & Forever

Love Always,

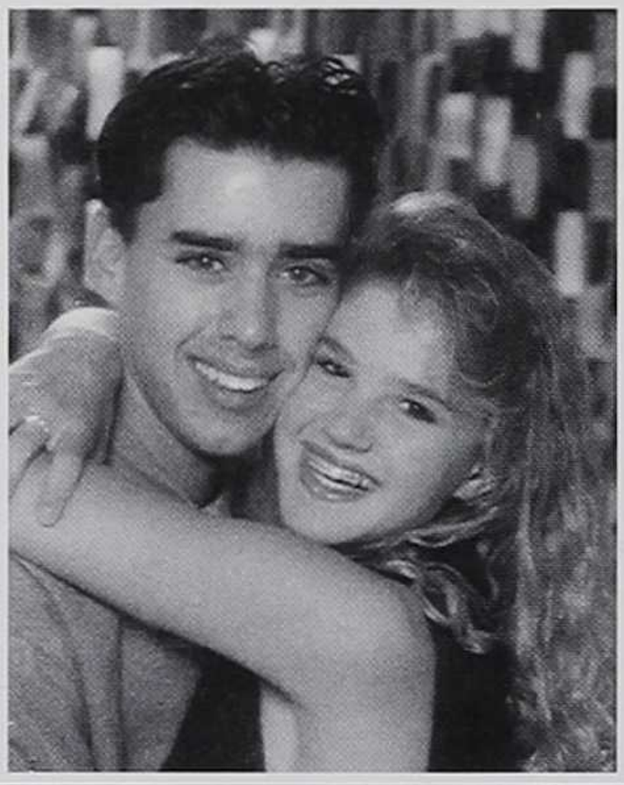
Heather,

This was only one of the many smiles we have shared over the past four years. I hope there will be many more in the coming future. I'm very proud of all the wonderful things you have accomplished. I love you sweetheart.

Love always, Stephen



Dear Felicia,

You are a shining example of what a daughter can be -- love and laughter, beautiful and good, honest and principled, determined and independent, sensitive and intelligent. You are a shining example of what every parent wishes their daughter was and we are so very proud of you.

We love you,

We love you so much.

Erron,

You were a cute little baby and now you've become a beautiful young woman. A woman that thought she wouldn't make it, but you did! You studied hard and you have achieved your goals. Look at you now -- You're GRADUATING! Something you thought would never happen.

We are proud of you and we love you very much.

Congratulations! Love,

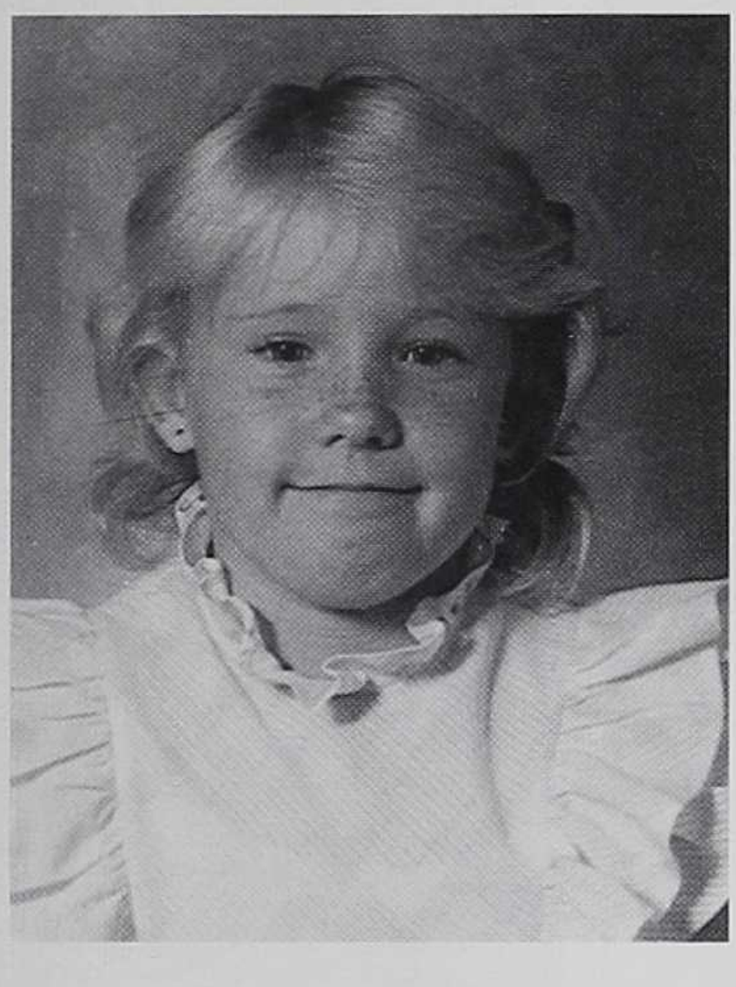
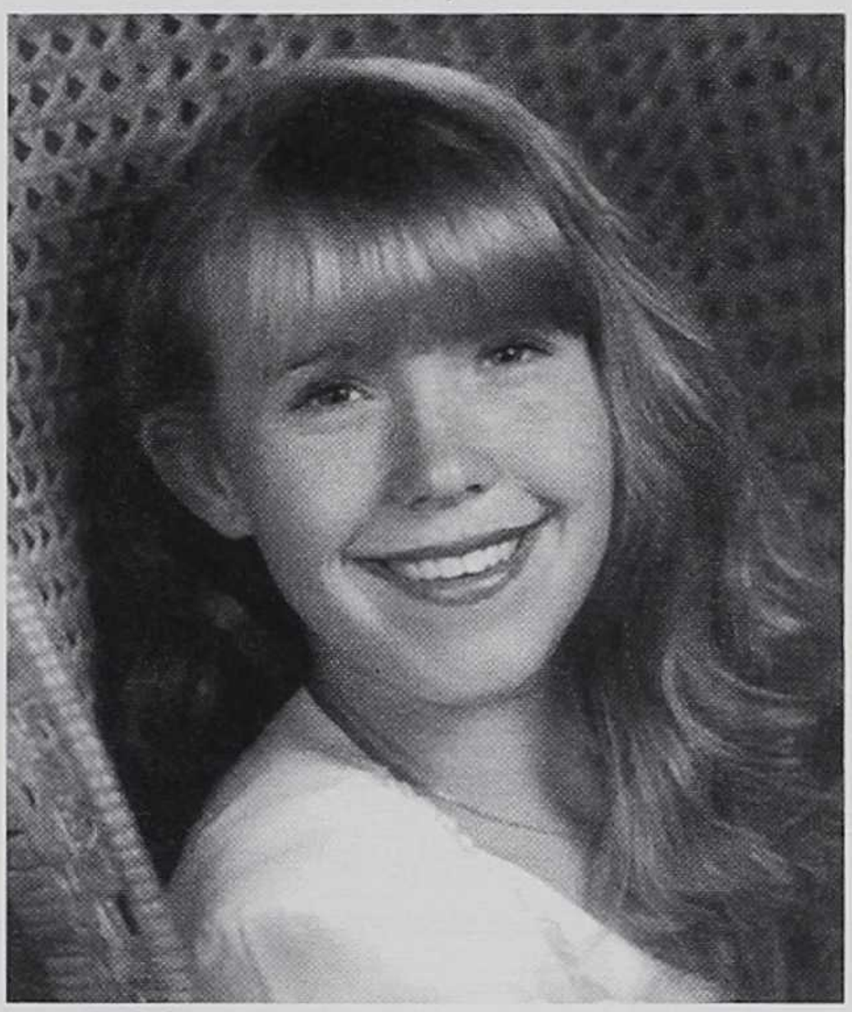
Congratulations Valerie Kay O'Brien

You have come a long way from --

1st Grade



To a beautiful Senior



You have made a lot of friends along the way. You have a way of touching ev-eryone you come in contact with.

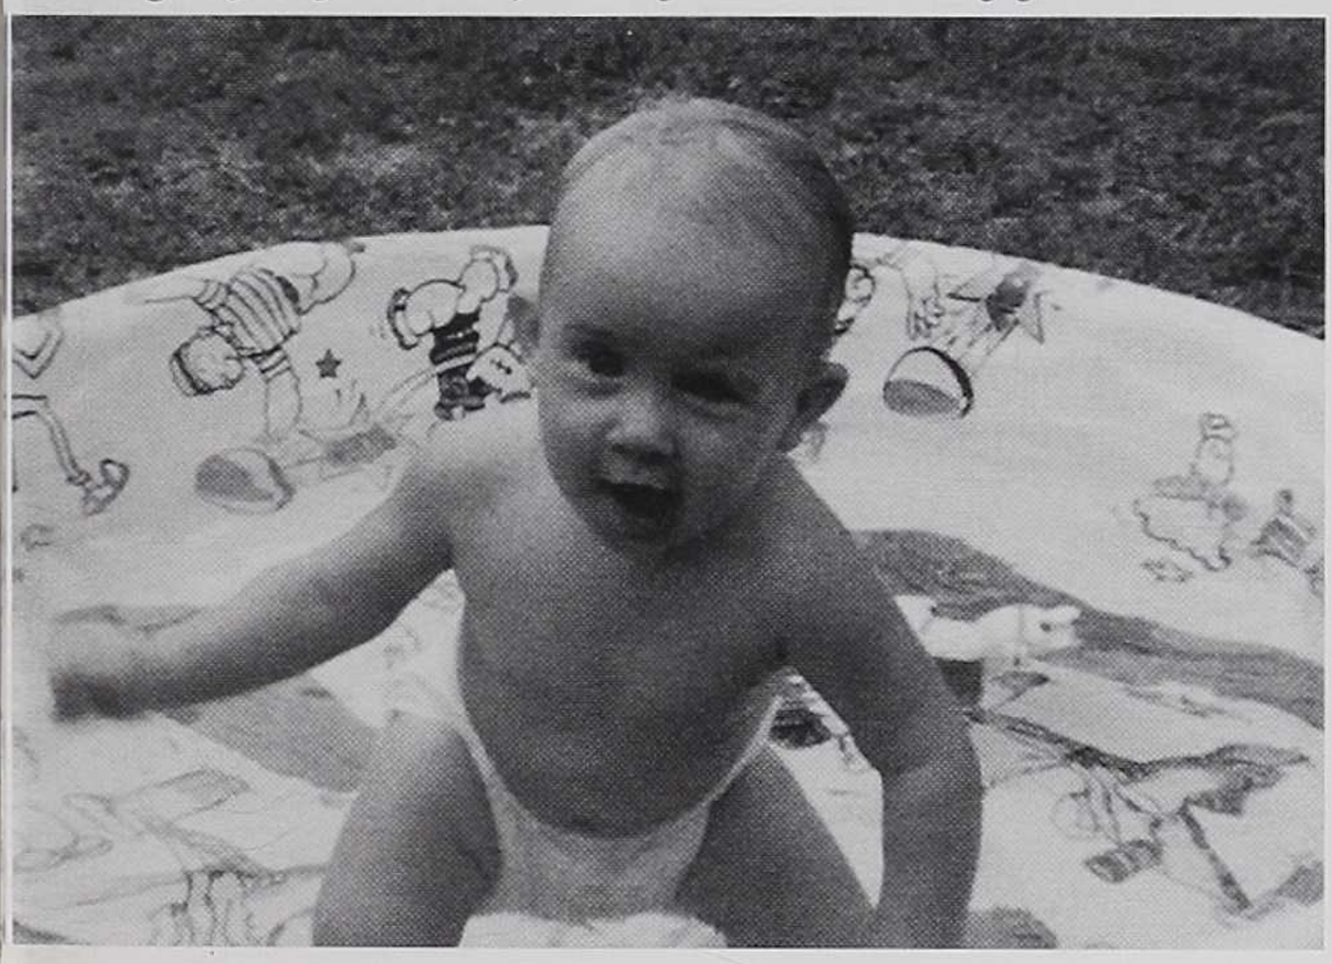
You have obtained more in your twelve years in school than most and that is something for you to be proud of. And when someone mentions having the most spirited heart, the first person I think of is you.

You have made me so very proud of you. You will never know how it makes me feel to see and hear about all the wonderful things you've done at Kennedale. From having a never say die attitude on the volleyball court -- when most others would quit -- NOT YOU! When you felt knocked down or you felt walked on, you just got back up, dusted yourself off, put on a smile, and went on your way.....The word quit doesn't exist in you!

Remember, keep the wind to your back, keep your dreams alive in your heart and in your mind, and never let anybody steal your dreams, and you will go as far as your heart and mind will take you.

I LOVE YOU,
Daddy

P.S.
I bought you your first pool -- you'll have to buy your next.



Dear Valerie,

Hitch your wagon to a star and let neither friend nor foe keep you from your goal. Best of luck!

Love always,
Your Grandmother
Kay O'Brien

HOW CAN YOU WALK ON WATER?

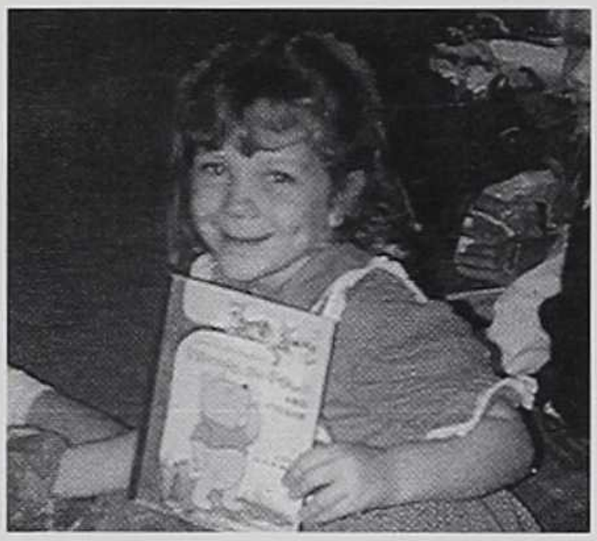
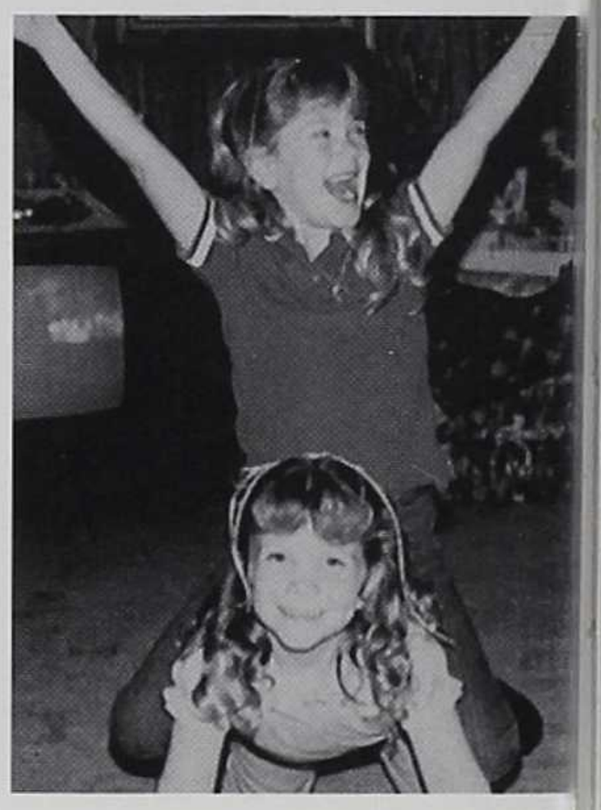
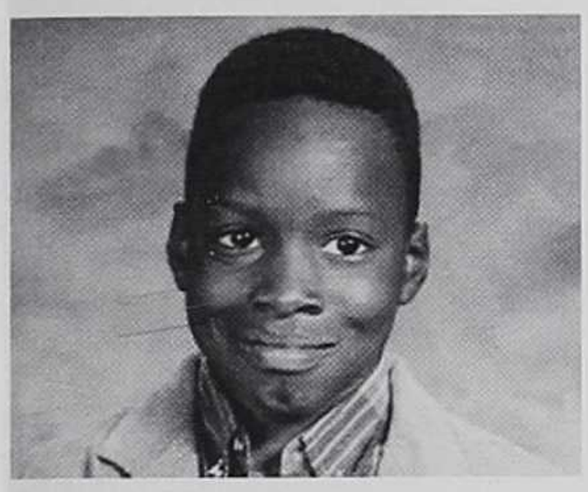
Stephanie,

Well, the big day is finally here- you're a Senior. It seems like only yesterday you were starting kindergarten. You have become such a beautiful young lady. We just want you to know how special you are to us. We are so proud of you and who you have become. Stef, no matter where life takes you, you will always be mine and daddy's little girl and we are always here for you. May all your dreams come true. You deserve only the best in life.

Love you always,
Mom and Dad







The Bottom Line

Face it, nobody owes you a living, what you achieve or fail to achieve in your lifetime is directly related to what you do, or fail to do.

Nothing is carved in stone,
You can change anything in your life, if you want it badly enough.
Excuses are for losers,
Those who take responsibility for their actions are the real winners in life.
Take control of your life.
Dare to dream and take risks...Compete.

Ebony!

From our precious little baby girl, to our beautiful black princess. There is not one as proud of you than we are!

Love you always,
Mom & Dad

Eby,

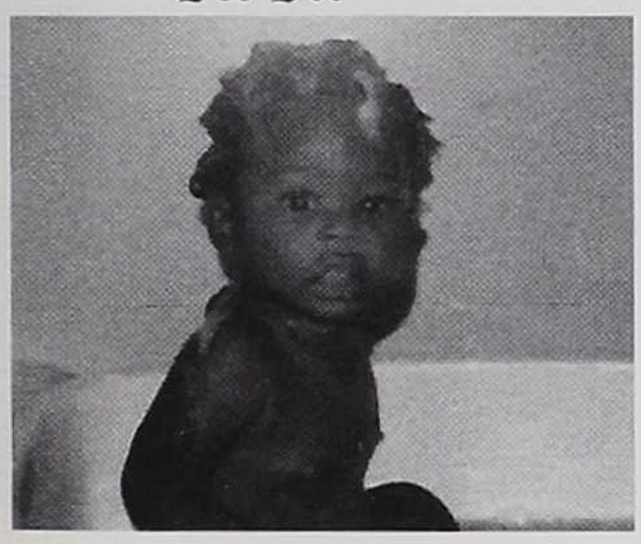
I know you're going to college and I hope that I won't miss you too much. I hope you can get into the computer stuff that you want. While you're away ,I will write every month of every year. I hope that you won't go far so you could come home more than just the holidays. I love you and have fun.

Your baby sister,
Dee Dee

Eby,

Since we were little babies, you have always walked two steps in front of me. Back then, I could keep up, but now you're flying full speed, and leaving me behind. I will have to get used to going to school and not seeing you there. Now who is going to help me with my Algebra? We will miss you very much. Don't forget what we have taught you.

Love,
Your little sister, Toya



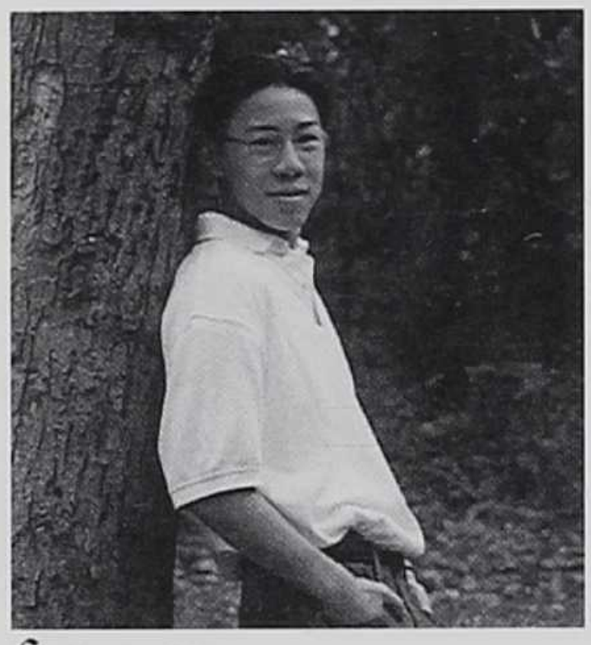
Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

Joshua 1:9

Lawrence,

Well the time is here, finally! We get to move on with our lives and get a taste of the real world. You and I have been the best of friends since kindergarten, we saw both sides of a friendship-the good and the bad. I think that made us closer friends! Remember to always keep God number one in your life. Always know that I'm here for you and I hope we stay close in the future as well. Stay true to your game and it will bring you FAME!

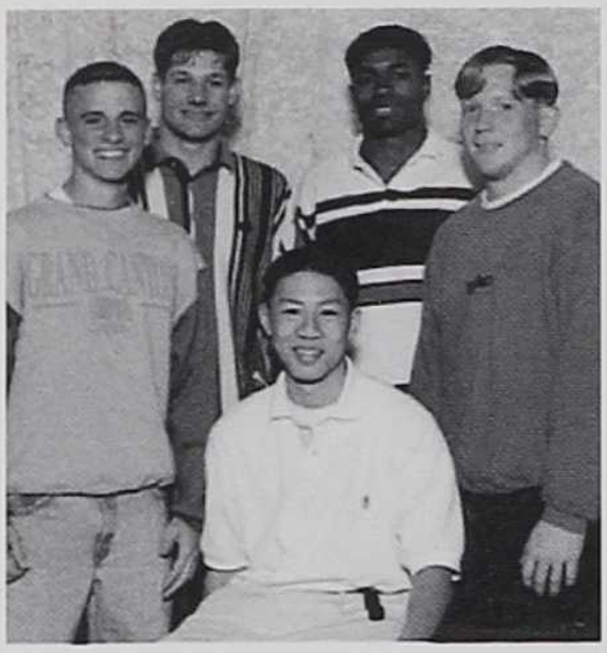
Semper Fidelis,
Richard Hayek



Lawrence,

We have been through a lot together from second grade until now. Hopefully we will stay in contact throughout college. It's been a fun four years and I hope the best for you.

Your Friend,
Wesley M. Bautovich #5



Lawrence,

I can't believe we are big SENIORS. We are almost out of here! I am so glad we have become friends. Too bad our friendship didn't come until our senior year. You are a wonderful person and a great friend. Please take care of yourself and believe in yourself. Your day will come, you just have to wait for it. I want you to know I'll always be here for you. Good luck.

Love Always,
Valerie K. O'Brien

Darda,

I have known you since grade school, and we have always been great friends. I hope that we will always stay close. May God be with you and guide you. Follow your dreams.

Love Always,

Lawrence,

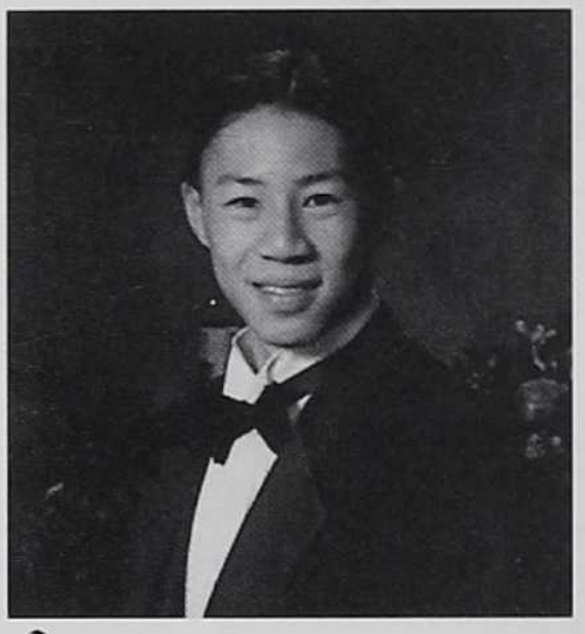
We've been good friends for a long time. Hopefully we'll remain the same throughout our lives. God bless you. Good luck in all you do.

Your Friend,
Andrew Scott

Lawrence, Isaiah 41:10

For years I have known of you but only recently did I meet the real you. I know I've said this before, but you are one of the neatest people I have ever met, and my bestest friend. I know I can be a pain, but you always told me it would get better. Well, now I'm telling you: Never give up, follow your heart always, and never forget me.

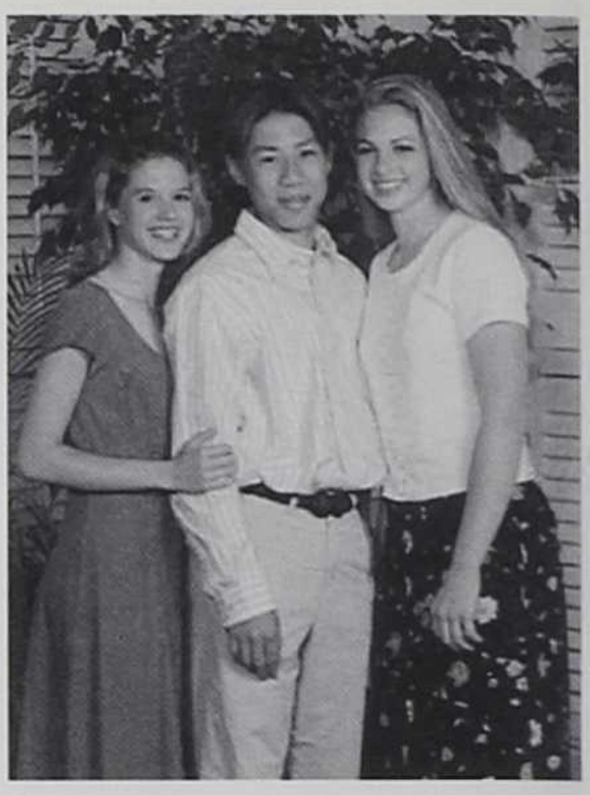
All my love,
Jamie Lynn



Lawrence,

We have been the coolest friends for the longest time. I'm glad we stuck with each other over the years. We had our bad and good times, but it just made us stronger. Too bad we're about to go our separate ways, but I'll always remember us chilling all the time. Well, I pray that you head in the right direction and make good choices. Stay in contact.

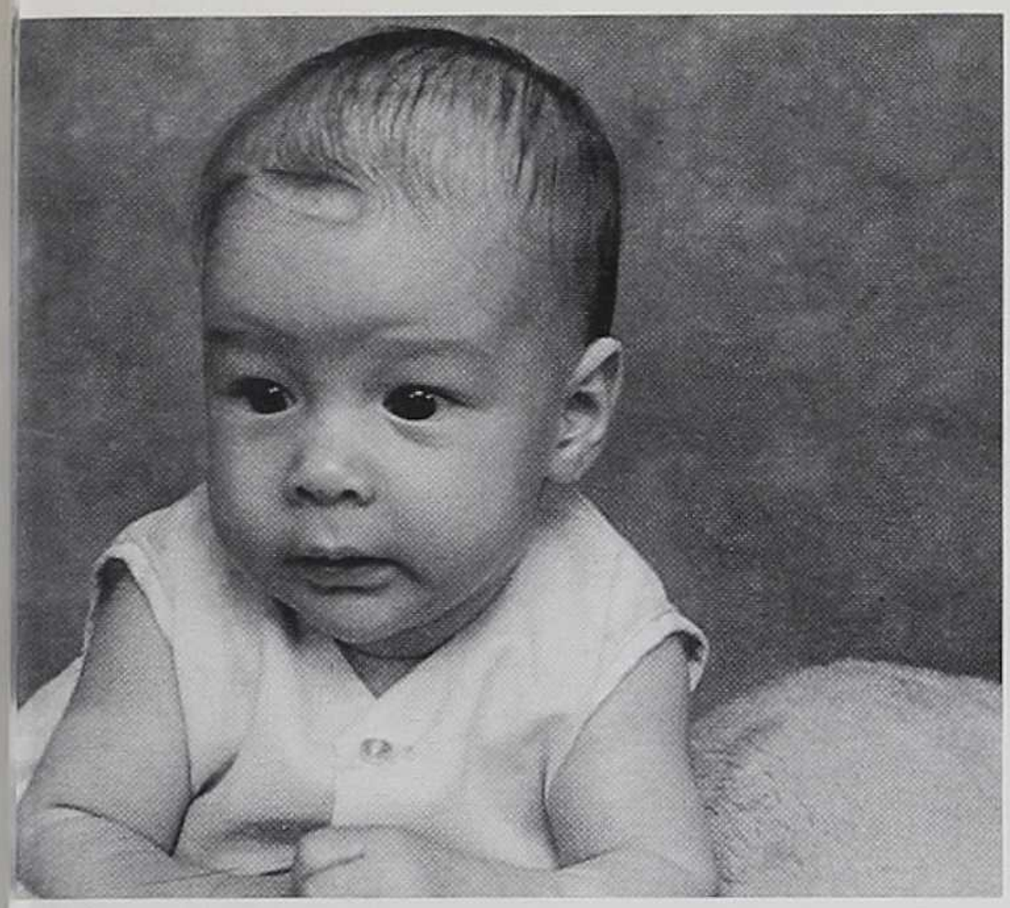
Friends for life,
Cedric James

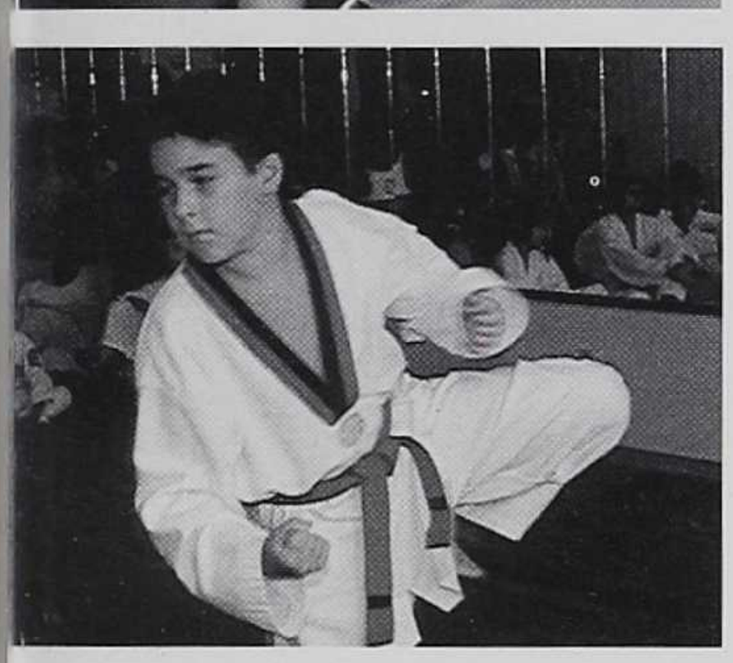


Lawrence,

It is unbelievable how time passes so quickly. Out of all the people I know, you're one of the few that I know that will care about friends to whatever extent. I've always wanted to tell you this, and I guess this is the perfect time to do it (since you have to put it in the yearbook word for word): I've always thought you "flirted" too much (as in being too friendly), although you never thought you did. It's also the reason why we ended what we ended. Well enough embarassment for you. It's great to be great friends and hope it stays that way. Remember A.H.S. rules! Congratulations!

Love Always,
Ginny Jacoby





Carlos,

One of the proudest moments in our lives was on July 2, 1979, the day you were born. The memories of all those seventeen years, from your first birthday cake, to opening Christmas presents, will be cherished always. You've grown to be a handsome young man with a big bright future ahead of you. Your goals and achievements are indicative of your future. Carlos, always remember to keep the Lord in your heart , letting him be your guide and strength. Be good to others and yourself, the way the Lord intended it to be.

Congratulations!
With all of our love,
Mom and Dad

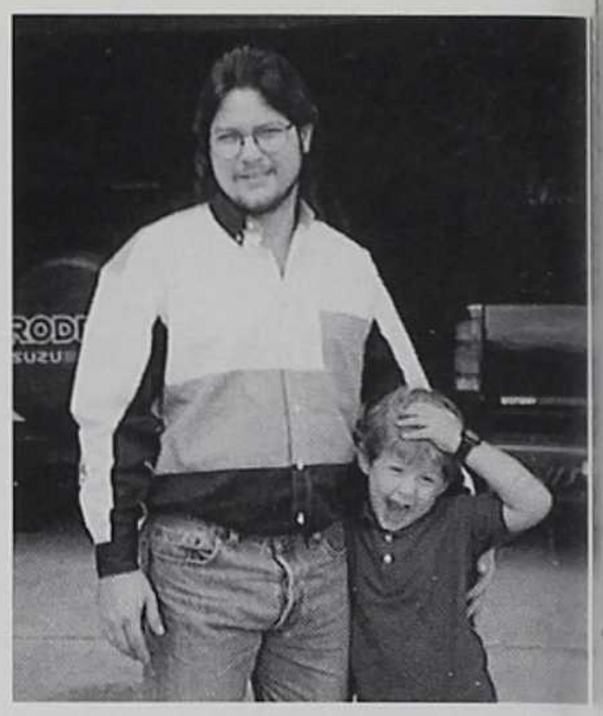
Jamie---

Wéve been through a lot together over the past 171/2 years. It seems like only yesterday we were catching lizards or playing Barbies and now youre driving and about to graduate high school. Wow! I am really proud of you, James. I know nobody is perfect and its hard to always do the right thing--but youve stood strong. Youve made some mistakes and learned from them without slowing down. Youve been a bold "jesus Freak" when its not always the coolest thing to do. When you walk across that stage youll enter a vast new world full of so many things. Its yours for the taking, so grab it and dont let anyone take it from you. You have a light shining so bright inside you; take it and share it with everybody! And remember in God's grip we can never be separated! I've been so blessed to have both an awesome sister and an incredible friend all wrapped into one great person! You know you can count on me for anything. I know I'm not always the best person to be around, but thats okay cuz neither are you. I love you, Durham!

Sisters & Friends,
Jen

To all girls who have a sister but dont get along, you may want to work things out because a sister can be a better friend that youll ever have. I'm speaking from experience.

P.S. Okay, enough mushy stuff-Jamie, please, please, PLEASE,put the lid on the toothpaste! (I had to throw it in there, Jam, you know I love you!)



Dear Jamie,

You love everybody and they love you because you are a "little people" and there is only one Jamie Durham and there will never be another one. Jamie, always remember that Mommie and Daddy love you more than anything and we are your best friends too. I love Jamie.

Love, Daddy

Dear Jamie,

From a wrinkled nose little girl with a magnetic smile and personality to a blossomed young lady with the future at her feet, you will always be my super star - so keep your feet on the ground and keep reaching for the stars.

The ties of friendship will endure
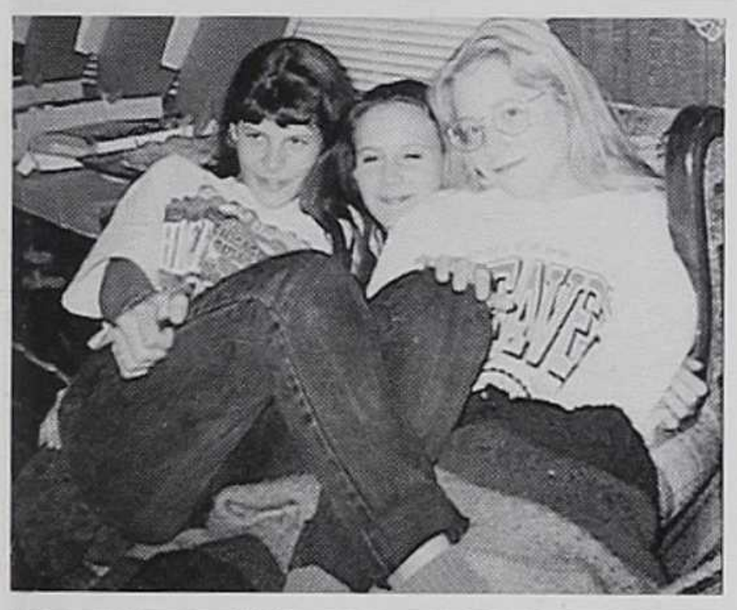
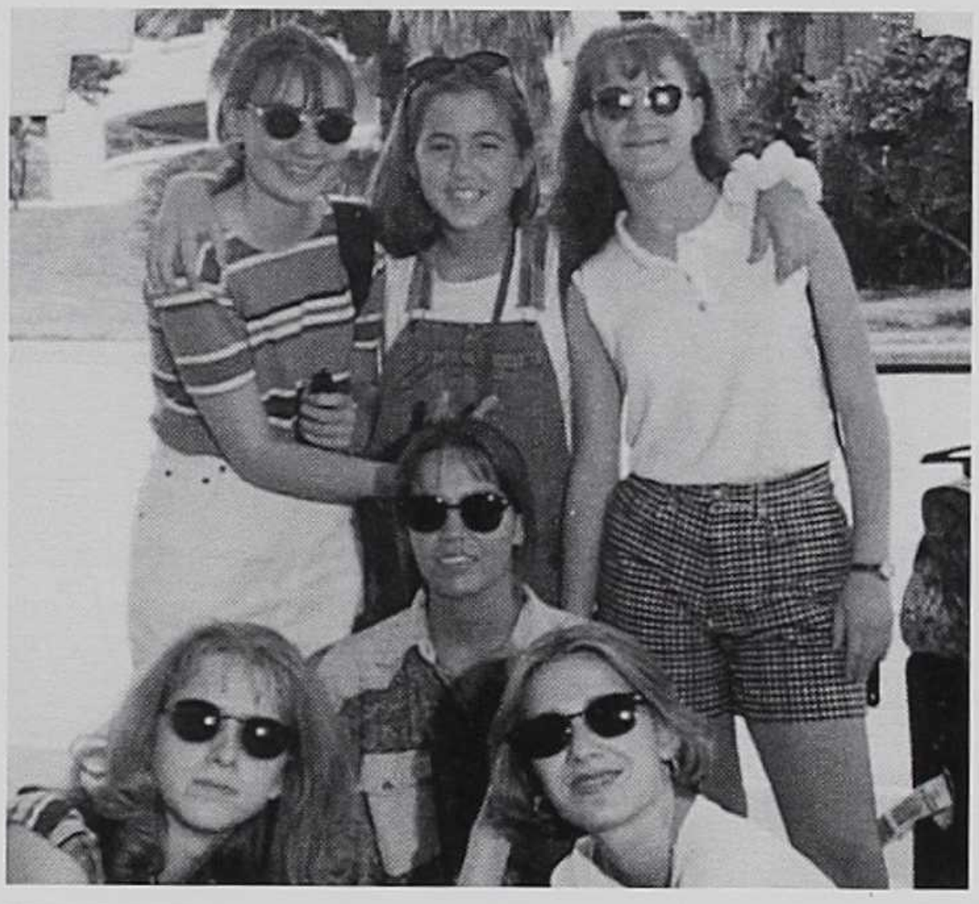
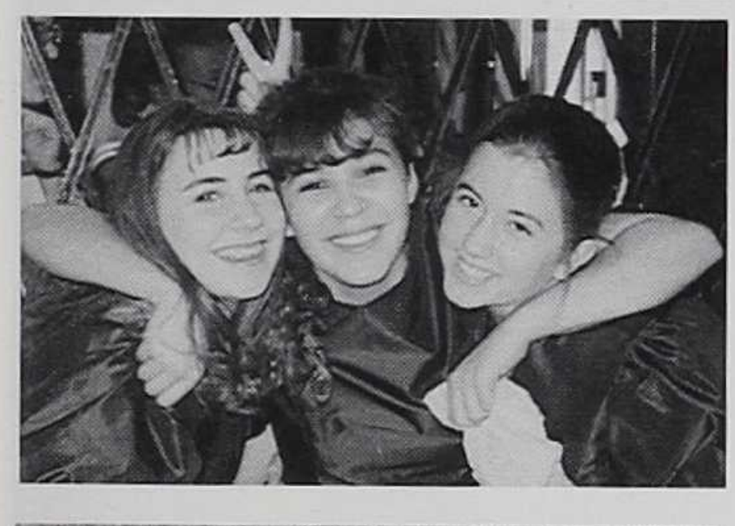
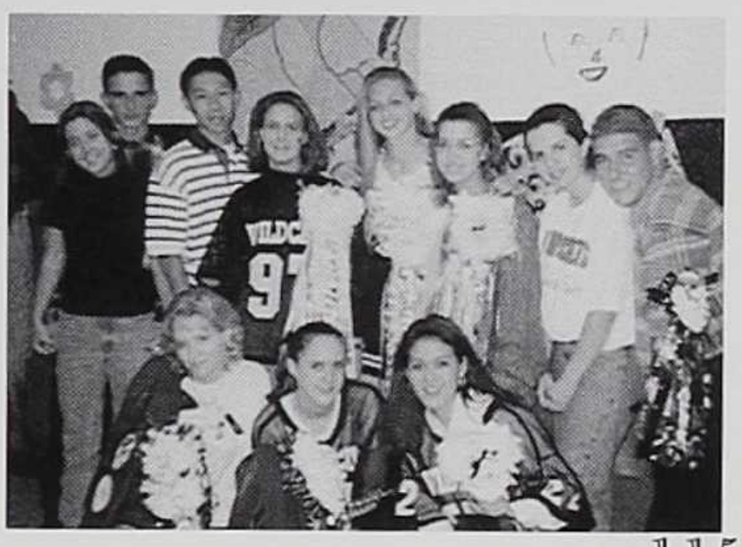
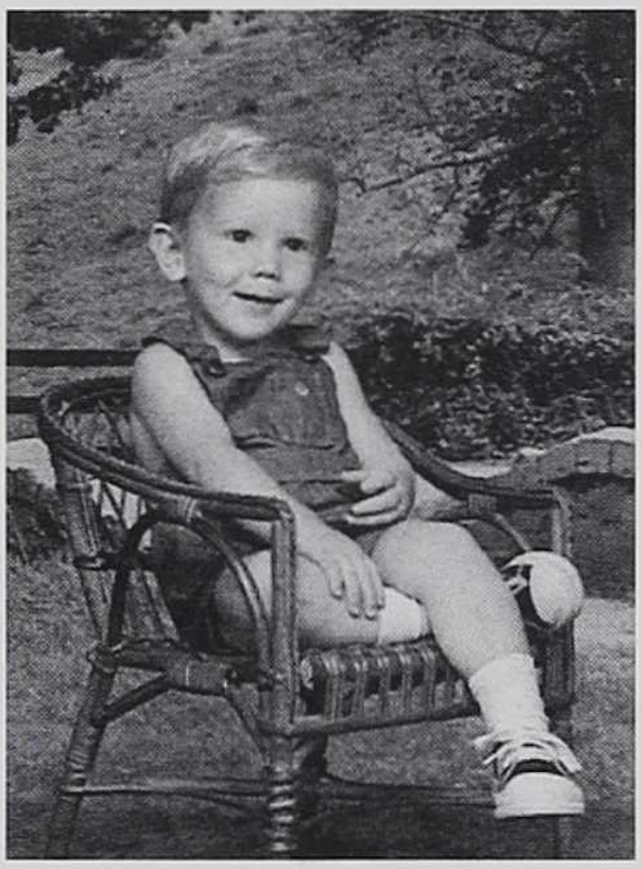
And keep us close forever.











Andrew (aka Bubbie),

As your time in high school draws to a close, it is difficult for me to want to let you go.... it's a Mom thing! But as you leave the security of family and friends to embark on a new journey, I want to wish you the very best by saying ...

"May you have--
Enough happiness to keep you sweet,
Enough trials to keep you strong,
Enough sorrow to keep you human,
Enough hope to keep you happy,
Enough failure to keep you humble,
Enough success to keep you eager,
Enough friends to give you comfort,
Enough wealth to meet your needs,
Enough enthusiasm to look forward,
Enough faith to banish depression,
Enough determination to make each day better than yesterday."

Continue to grow in your faith and know that the Lord and your family will always be there for you, to love and lift you.

In 1979 someone special came into our lives... and then it seemed like a blink of an eye. OUR BABY BOY grew to enjoy swimming, fishing, dirt bike riding and going to the Cowtown Speed Way.

Now, as we watch him grow into a nice young man, we think about the wonderful memories we shared and we'll never forget...

We'll always remember all children come, and adults go, but no other boy will ever be as great as the boy we know...

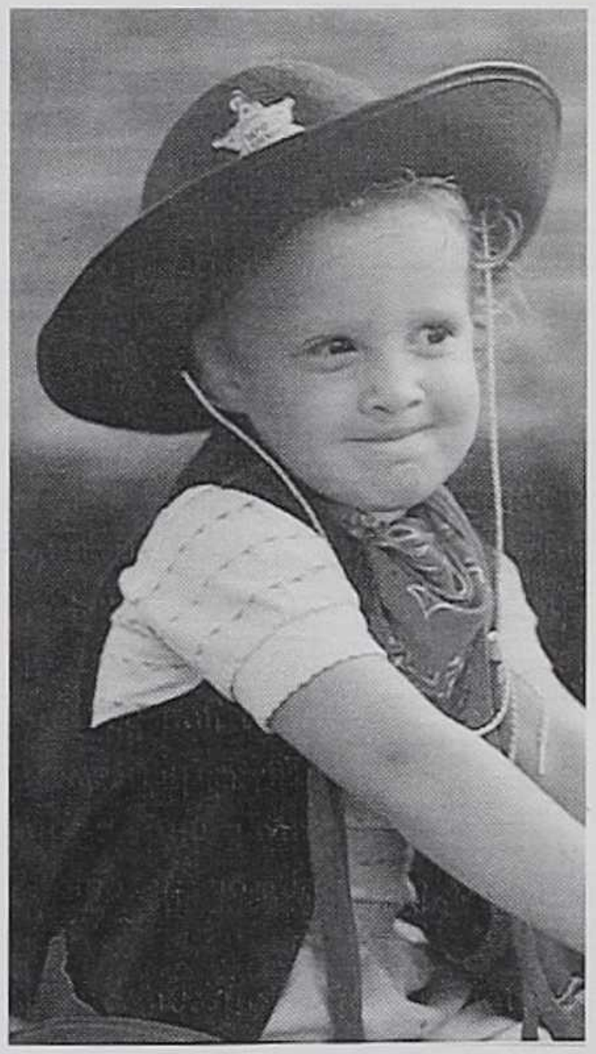
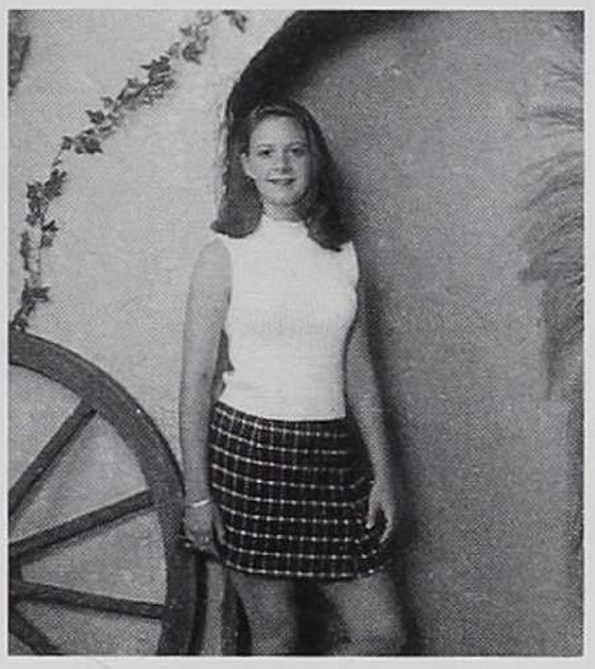
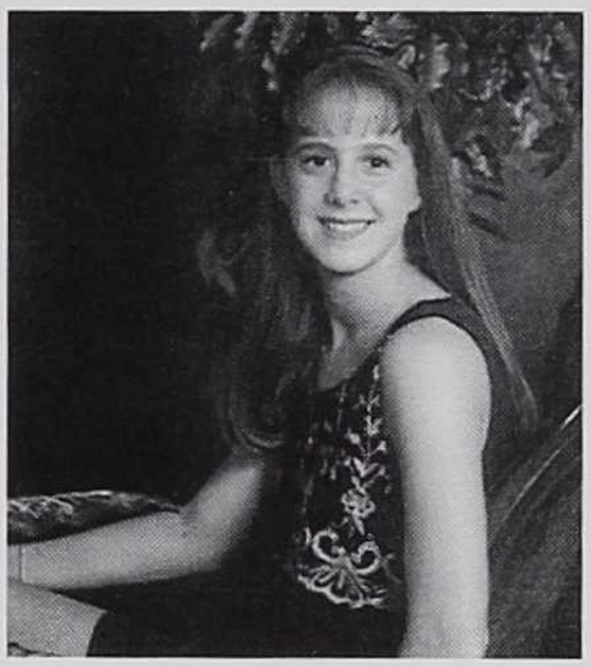
Amber & Angie,

The birth of a child is such a wonderful experience. When the Lord sees fit to bless you with twin daughters, it takes on a totally new meaning. Our precious babies have grown up from "two peas in a pod" to two very remarkable individual young ladies. We are so proud of all the accomplishments you have made on your own. You've both grown so fast over the years. It's hard to believe you will soon be leaving us. The two of you have brought nothing but sunshine to our lives.

With all our love,
Mom & Dad







Jennifer and Jason,

It hardly seems possible how the years have flown by, and now you are both graduating from high school. We are very proud of both of you. As you continue through life, remember to keep Jesus there. Through Him you will find joy and happiness. We love you with all our hearts.

You are growing up to become a man. We are very proud that you are our son. As you can see, we've always known you had an interest in music. We love you,
Mom & Dad

Jerry,

Thanks for moving out, now I can have some peace and quiet around here. At college, study hard, but have fun.

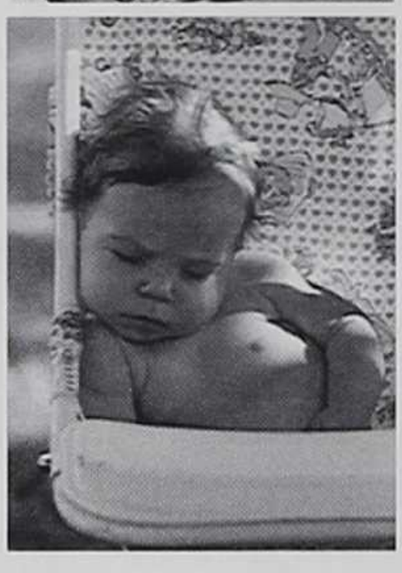
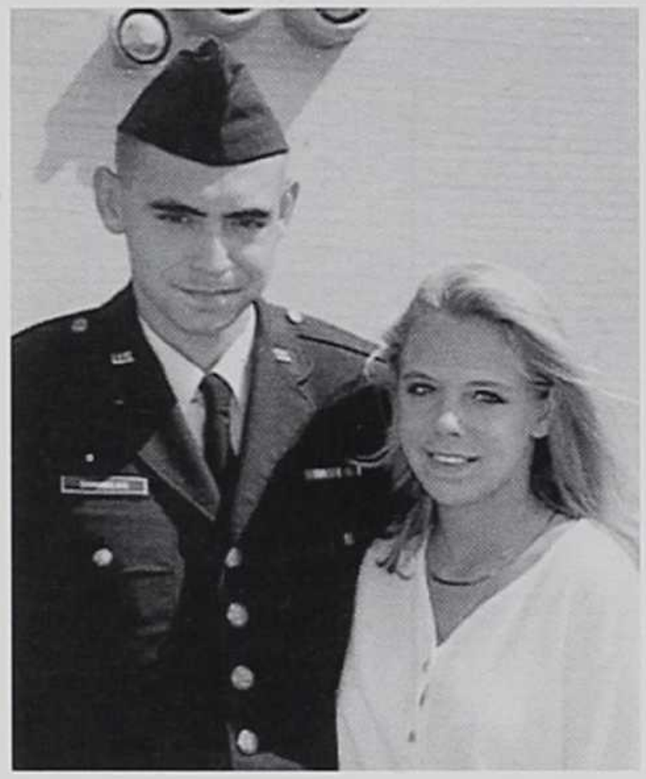
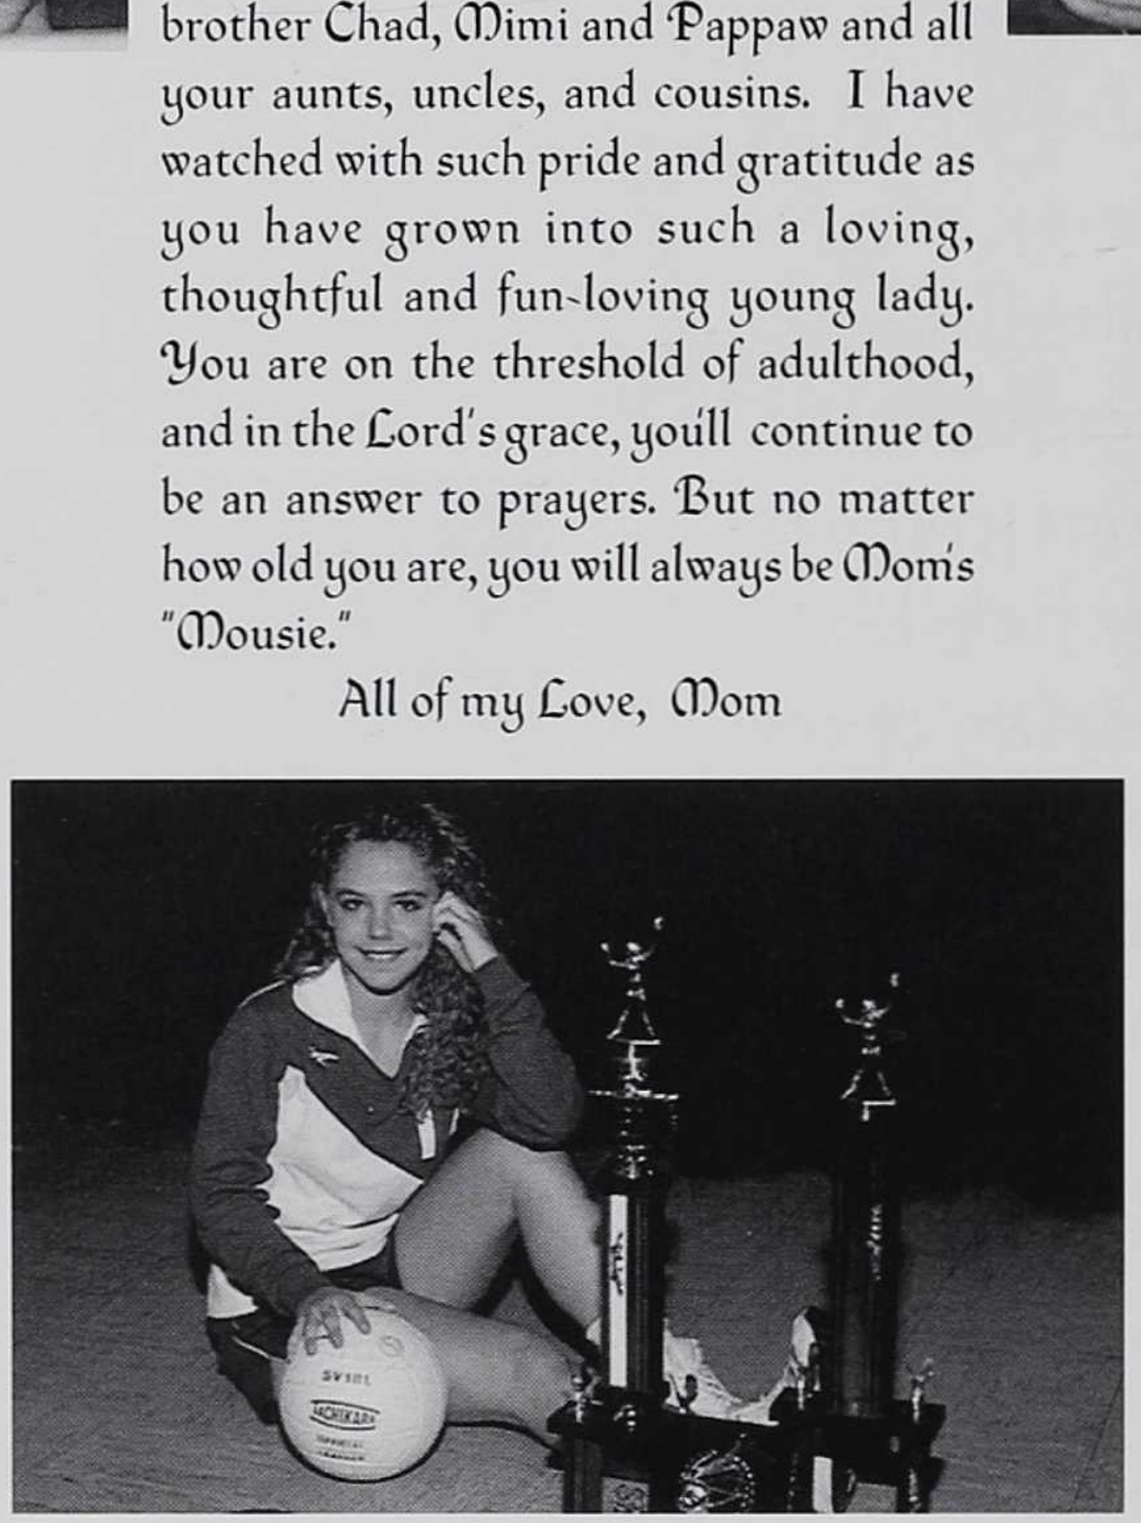
Dear Krisi,

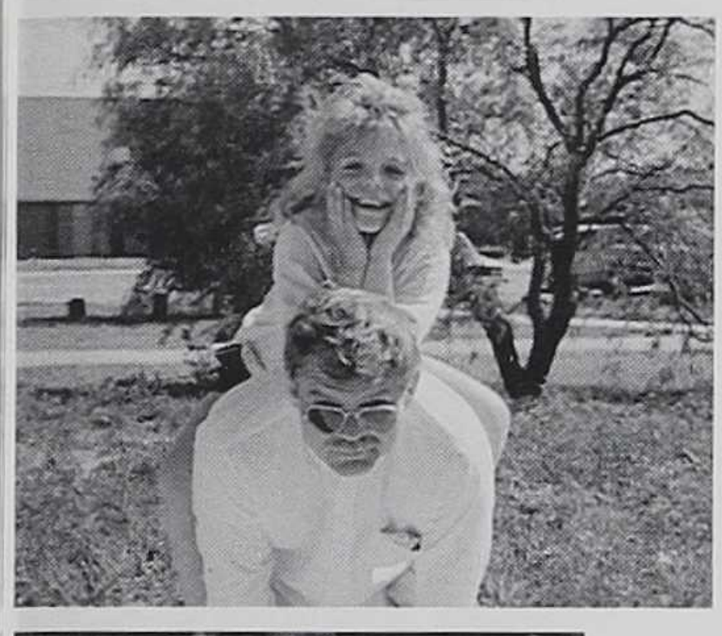
I've always known you were an answer to a prayer because for five years, I prayed for a baby girl with blue eyes, blonde hair and to be born in April! On April 18, 1979, you, the answered prayer, were born. From your first breath, you have been a delight and joy to me, your brother Chad, Mimi and Pappaw and all your aunts, uncles, and cousins. I have watched with such pride and gratitude as you have grown into such a loving, thoughtful and fun-loving young lady. You are on the threshold of adulthood, and in the Lord's grace, you'll continue to be an answer to prayers. But no matter how old you are, you will always be Mom's "Mousie."

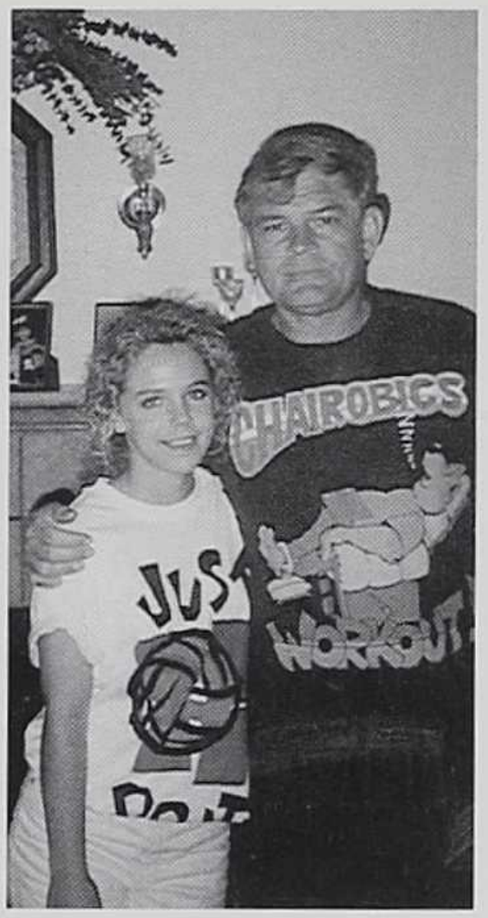
All of my Love, Mom

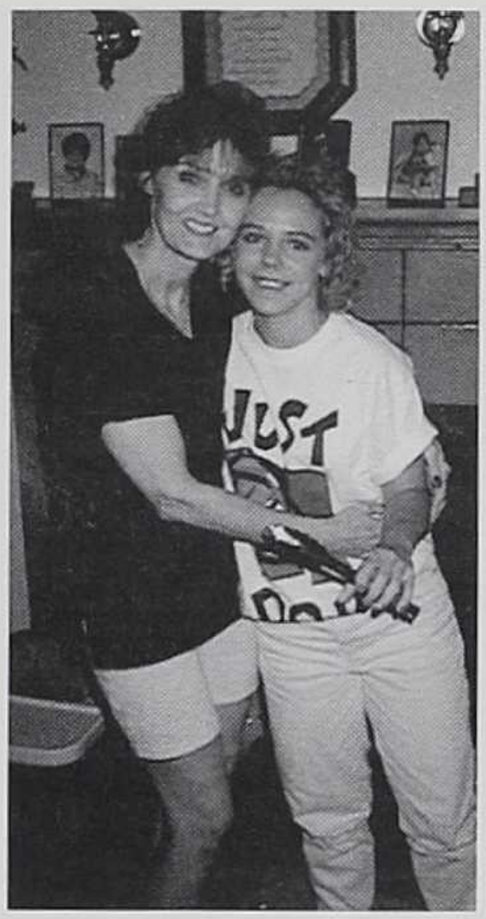












Dear Kris,

Once upon a time there was a mother who had two daughters and a son. She was happy enough, but then she met her Knight in shining armor, fell in love, and became the mother of another daughter and son. She loved her children so much that she worried she couldn't be as good a mom to the new son and daughter. She soon learned they didn't have to grow under her breast to love them in her heart.

You have been "Our" little girl since you were six. I remember going through the store and you calling me "Step Mommie" 'til you had everyone in the store's attention. Brushing your hair, only to have you mess it up so I could start all over. The missing front teeth you tried to hide with your upper lip. Your constant chattering, your warm hugs, your first boyfriend, first date, and first make-up.

We certainly didn't start as the "Brady Bunch", but we most definitely became a family. You are a very special part, you fit in like a unique piece in a puzzle, without you the picture would not be complete. I love you very much.

You've worked very hard this year. I am so proud of you and all your accomplishments.

My prayer for you is to let God guide you and that He always fills your heart with great joy...Again, I love you!

Daddy and Delores (Loy)

Wéve watched you grow from our little boy into a fine young man
Whós traveled the world, both high and low, and held it in his hand

It was you who chose which road to travel and which games to play
And those decisions in your life have now brought you to this day.

The day you are considered a man, but not just for your years
But also for integrity and honor gained through toil and tears

You lost and chose to sacrifice much more than most possess
Only to be rewarded by Jesus the Christ because you are semper fidelis.

Son, To say we are proud of you falls so short of describing what our hearts truly hold for you. Love, Mom& Dad

Editor's Note

To say the least, it has been quite a year. Wéve had our ups and downs but we managed to make it through together and finish, in my opinion, a pretty good book.

Alfredo: Sorry we made you stay in here so long, but we had fun anyway with your scenarios. Good luck next year, socks.

Ryan: I have to admit, we were surprised by you. We really appreciated all your hard work. Thanks a bunch and have a fun sr. year.

Sara: Youíve been a great asset these past few years. Your experience will be valued next year- good luck!

Becky: Well, you did great work when you came! I hope you had a good time this year and have a great sr. year next.

Luke: You definitely made this year a lot of fun. I know Kristina really enjoyed having help. Good luck in high school your next few years.

Jennifer: I really enjoyed having you in yearbook. Thank you for being such a good friend to me through everything this year. I love you like a sister!

Brandi: You are such a talented, funny person- and I hear you have a thing for older guys, too! (even those with kids!) I wish you the best of luck in high school and beyond. I know you will be successful in whatever you do.

Jodie: You were a welcome addition to this staff- we really appreciated all your help. I know you will be a big help next year, too. Just keep smiling your beautiful smile and it isn't as bad as it seems.

Amy: I'm glad the latest thing we have in common (yearbook) turned out to be more pleasant than the first thing we had in common (you know who). I really admire you for your dedication and determination. I know you will do fine next year. And if you panic, I won't be far.

Jackie: Thanks for all your help and for being such a good friend. I can't believe we made it through!

Sarah & Kristina: Well, I've planned this for years but I don't know where to start. Ya'll have been my best friends (true friends) and I couldn't have gotten through this year, or even high school, without you both. I can't begin to thank you for everything. I'll save the cute inside jokes for when I sign your book. I love you both.

Ms. Boie: I can't begin to thank you for all your help this year. We really couldn't have done it without you! Thanks for letting us laugh at your yearbook (spending time with your parents??) and for being our friend. Good luck next year and call me if you need help.

In closing, I would like to thank my friends, my teachers, and especially my parents, for all their love and support over these past few years. I'm sorry. Love and Kisses,

Ann
